THE GHAZIS.

LONDON, Aug. 25.—An India dispatch says a large number of Ghazis are flocking down from the Kheilat-Ghilgit road and other directions to join Ayob Khan, who could not retreat if he wished, as the Ghazis are determined to fight to the last.

RAMICHUNDAR.

A dispatch to the Times from St. Petersburg says the Indian Prince, Ramichundar, for some time a resident of that capital, and who is related to the notorious Nena Sahib, has again appeared as the friend and adviser of Abdurrahman Khan, to whom he is for a second time on his way to Afghanistan. The suspicions which his former movements in Russia and Afghan Turkestan have created in the minds of those who believe in the latest report of Russian intrigues in Afghanistan will probably only be increased by the latest advice about him. Ramichundar intends to go to Tashkent, and from there to the headquarters. He says the Amir finds no sympathy at Tashkent. The Persian officials also occupy a strong position. He is also highly displeased at Gen. Skobelev's movements against the Turcomans, seeing therein danger to Herat, which the Shah hopes to retake.

THE GLASGOW IRON MARKET.

A Glasgow dispatch states that the iron market is much excited, and has fallen to 38 7/8d. The miners are firm in their demand for a raise of wages, and are determined to hold out. The excessive iron supply has decreased slowly.

TRADE ARRANGEMENTS.

An arrangement, which entered into which will materially develop the direct

Many rifles, the same as used in the Bulgar-

WASHINGTON.

The Alleged Frauds in the Southern Census—Walker's Efforts to Ferret the Matter Out—President Hayes' Trip West—Yellow-Fever at New Orleans.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 25.—Those who ought to know most about census matters say that the Republican press will do Gen.
Walker, Superintendent of the Census, a great injustice if they should declare that he is doing nothing to ferret out the alleged frauds that have been so widely discussed. The investigation is now being made of the South Carolina returns, and recourse is had to all checks provided by the census system to detect the frauds and their authors. It may not be generally known that the enumerators of the census are not paid until they have reported each day by postal card to the central office at Washington the number of persons enumerated. These cards are all filed, and with many other things, are being examined.

It is discovered, for instance, from these cards that a great number of enumerators regularly accomplished their enumeration of very much larger number of persons than they were physically possible for them to do in the sparsely-populated regions in which they were engaged. These cards are one check by which the fraud will be detected.

Gen. Walker does not care to make his conduct public, or to conduct the investigation upon the street corner, but if it is possible to obtain in the census office sufficient evidence of fraud, either in a single case or on the part of a combination of persons, the country need not be surprised some morning to discover that Gen. Walker has taken very summary measures, and has laid the hands of the law upon the criminals. The first information likely to come from the Census Bureau relates to the fact that the enumerators of the perpetrators of fraud upon inconvertible enumerators for many of the districts in which they were engaged. It is not now paid, as Gen. Walker does not propose to use the money of the Government to pay for the frauds of the enumerators. The money for the census is not to be paid until the returns are correct, and the frauds are discovered. The Census Bureau will have means by which to make an honest census.

SECRETARY SAYS THAT GEN. SCHEFFEL will not be removed from his command at West Point on account of the Whitaker case.

It is said that W. D. Howells, of the Atlantic Monthly, has been invited to accompany the President on his Western trip. There will be some third-story story in the discovery of the enormous German armaments. The other Republican papers write in the same strain.

LABORING WITH THE PORTS.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Aug. 25.—The Ambassadors still await the replies of their governments to the offers of the Porte to cede the Dulcigno district, except Gruda and Dinosh.
The Porte maintains that the Treaty of Berlin left Gruda and Dinosh to the Albanians.

It is expected that the Ambassadors will give notice to the Porte this week of an intended naval demonstration. They will also summon the Porte this week to adhere to the line of demarcation of the Greek frontier adopted by the Conference. The Turkish Premier is understood to be in favor of a settlement of the dispute by mutual concession.

THE PORTS CATEGORICALLY DENY THAT ANY printed pamphlets have been sent with his letters to India with the object of exciting the Mohammedans against England.

HOPEFUL.

LONDON, Aug. 25.—A Paris dispatch says that the Turkish Minister has declared that they are fully conscious of the necessity of solving the Montenegrin question without delay in order to strengthen their diplomatic position with regard to the Greek claims, and in order to diminish the pressure of Russia, who is special protector of the Bosnian and Herzegovina provinces. The Sultan still hesitates to take any decided step towards ceding the territory, and the Albanian preparations for resistance without interference from the Porte, Hiza Pasha having at once fraternized with the league. Osman Pasha, the newly appointed Governor of Scutari, is also playing a double game.

ABANDONED.

LONDON, Aug. 25.—A Berlin correspondent understands that Roumania, acting by the advice of Russia, has abandoned the right of jurisdiction over Roumanian residents in Bulgaria, which she held by virtue of the Treaty of Berlin. She has hitherto energetically insisted upon maintaining.

THE DEMOCRACY.

A DESPERATE SITUATION.

Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune.

NEW YORK, Aug. 25.—The Herald, which has not been able to conceal its desire for Democratic victory in November, in spite of its professed independence, has no more been able to conceal its fear of Democratic defeat. It adds another plaint in its endeavor to teach the Democrats that they must take a new tack or get swamped, and it speaks very dolefully, indeed, as though it did not expect its councils to be heeded.

Here is a sample which expresses the situation, and will be pleasant reading for the Democrats of the West who are basing their hopes of success on the Eastern brethren.

Thus far the Democratic party is not conducting its Presidential campaign with conspicuous success. It is not doing so well as we feel compelled to say, not that we are any particular whether Gen. Hancock is defeated or elected, but because it concerns the public interest that the opposition party in our politics be ably handled. What are Gen. Hancock's fussy and demagogic friends doing to promote the success of his canvass? His election is staked on the vote of New York, but although two months have passed, he has not yet been able to make a solid front of the Democratic party of the State. The factious factions which quarrel over Mr. Tilden have not yet harmonized their differences, and the result is a demagogic and a demagogic candidate. There is no one in the Democratic party who is capable of leading the party to victory. The party is divided into two factions, the one of which is the old new Democratic party. The old Democratic

THURSDAY, AUGUST 26, 1880.
ACCORDING TO THE RETURNS received by the Madison State, the population of Wisconsin is 1,315,464, which is an increase of 20,000 over the population of the State in 1870. From these figures it is not at all probable that Wisconsin will have a larger Congressional representation after the next apportionment than it has had since 1850.

READING, Pa., is almost without water, and several of its manufacturing establishments have been compelled to suspend operations in consequence. The water for domestic use is now obtained from springs, and at considerable expense in time and labor to the inhabitants. One of the two public reservoirs is entirely empty, and the small supply in the other is reserved for use in case of fire.

TURKEY still hesitates to carry out the behests of the Powers as to the Greek frontier question, and the naval demonstration so much talked about a month ago is again threatened. The Ambassadors at Constantinople have not yet received instructions from their respective Governments as to what answer shall be made to Turkey's readiness to compromise. The situation is just as "mixed" as ever.

Col. Miles reports that Sergt. Devlin, of the Seventh Cavalry, with eight soldiers, encountered a party of hostile Indians near the fort of the Box Elder a few days ago, and killed two of them, wounded one, and recaptured several loads of cattle. Several hostile parties have been seen recently near the Yukon and the troops at Fort Keogh are preparing to give a good account of such of them as they can reach.

DRS. HUNTER and Metcalf, the physicians attending Mr. Washington McLean, of the Cincinnati Enquirer, think that their patient may recover, notwithstanding the combination of diseases from which he is suffering. Besides being affected by Bright's disease, he suffers from blood poisoning, and one of his lungs is badly diseased. Yet, with quiet and patience, the physicians think there is a very good chance of his recovery.

THE Le Van-Vanderbilt scandal is likely to have another airing in the New York courts. Charles K. McLean, a son of M. Vanderbilt, who died last week and was one of the parties who arranged for the settlement of the suit, has brought action to recover $150,000 from William H. Vanderbilt. It is said that he is able to collect so much money, but the circumstances attending the settlement will be given to the public, and the curious will be partly satisfied.

THE Iowa State Republican Convention met yesterday and nominated an excellent State and Electoral ticket. The nominees are one having served with distinction in the late war. The ticket stands: State Auditor, Capt. W. L. Lucas; Register of the Land Office, Capt. J. E. Fowler; Attorney General, Hon. John Smith; Secretary of State, Capt. J. A. Thurl. Senator Kirkwood was President of the Convention, which was the most harmonious, orderly, and enthusiastic.

THE Dobrudja country which was the scene of the late Russo-Turkish war is once again made the theatre of conflict, though on a smaller scale. The participants are Roumanian and Bulgarian mercenaries. In the latter, the war was well armed, and it is said that the Roumanians are not of the Russian Government, were worsted. The conflict or riot was in itself of no importance, but the outcome of Russo-Bulgarian intrigue it may have considerable importance in view of the unsettled and menacing state of Eastern affairs.

BOSTON has an economical Common Council. That body, at its meeting last night, refused to appropriate $10,000 for the celebration of the 25th anniversary of the settlement of the city. Of this sum, $4,000 was required to provide a public banquet for the entertainment of distinguished guests. In consequence of the refusal of the Council, some of the more extravagant intended will be dispensed with, and Boston will have a creditable celebration after all—the more creditable, perhaps, because it will not be carried out on the plan originally envisioned.

RICHARD O. ADAMS, the Deadwood Postmaster whose conviction on the charge of embezzling $12,000 of the Post-Office funds was referred to in Monday's TRIBUNE, was to have been sentenced yesterday, but either through the negligence or connivance of the United States Marshal he escaped Tuesday night. Adams' career has been a disgraceful and scandalous one, and he is now being sought by the authorities as a dangerous criminal. It is difficult to understand or explain. The sleepy Marshal has offered a reward for Adams' capture.

GEN. SHERMAN has issued a general order, couched in characteristic language, on the death of Gen. Myer, which is a graceful and well-merited tribute to the usefulness and worth of the deceased officer. The general points out that it is to the tact, energy, and unflinching courage of Gen. Myer the world is indebted for the "only full and satisfactory data extant for the study of meteorology." Gen. Sherman concludes his eulogy in the following eloquent language, all the more eloquent because it is true: "Struck down in the meridian of his usefulness, the country has lost in Gen. Myer a noise distinguished and promising officer, and the Signal Service an able, efficient, and zealous officer." The country will indeed miss his services as just and well won. It will not be easy to fill the vacancy which the gallant and able gentleman's death has caused.

GEN. GARFIELD was present at the reunion of his old regiment, the Second Ohio, at the Signal Service an able, efficient, and zealous officer." as brilliant and unbroken as was Sherman's march to the sea.

While Peru and Bolivia have been brought to the verge of bankruptcy and ruin by the war, it is noticeable that Chile is in the very high tide of prosperity, and that everything is booming. Her year's showing is a remarkable one. Trade has greatly improved. The crops have been bountiful. The prices of money are abundant and low. The rate of interest has declined. Values have advanced. The business of the country for the year amounts to $20,000,000, divided as follows: Exports, $20,000,000; Imports, $20,000,000; the excess of exports being $10,000,000. The gain in exports over the year before is $6,000,000, while imports have decreased $2,000,000. Agricultural products, and mineral products, have increased $3,750,000. The revenues for 1879 amount to $27,000,000, and the expenditures to $24,177,000, and simultaneously with the march of the armies and their victories the civil officers of the Government have organized and collected the revenues that formerly enriched the treasury of Peru, very much as the old Spaniards in the conquests of the old world.

The triumph of our army at Tacna will restore the commerce and industry of employment to both capital and labor. With a view to facilitating the commerce of the country, the regulations of our system have been extended and introduced into all the territory occupied by the army, and the breaking down of the barriers which have hitherto separated the commerce of the country from the commerce of the world.

In every phase of this war the Chileans have proved themselves to be a remarkable people. Though divided into numerous factions, like the people of every other South American republic, they have shown a promptness in their support of the Government. Their armies and fleets have been superbly handled, and, although in every instance they have not lost a single battle on sea or land. Equal skill has been manifested in the civil administration of the Government and in the management of the finances, and the prompt manner in which the executive agents of the Government have followed the armies and established its authority in the newly-occupied provinces reminds one of the way in which Russia established her civil authority in the towns and provinces that were wrested from Turkey. There are many things to admire in the course of Chile's war, and many things to be learned from her.

She has fought it out courageously and skillfully, and has displayed great bravery, hardihood, and dash. She has also shown herself possessed of masterly abilities in looking after her material interests, advancing her prosperity, and candidate for Governor of Pennsylvania in 1878, and polled 100,000 votes, has returned to the Republican party. He says the strength of the Flatists in Pennsylvania has been dissipated since the resumption of specie-payments. The

It can and will grant pensions to Confederate soldiers. (8) It can and will expend hundreds of millions of dollars in internal improvements in the South. And against all of this the Republican minority has nothing to say. Even if the Democrats should not attempt, by the aid of the Supreme Court, to declare the three constitutional amendments as unconstitutional and void, a Democratic Congress, aided by a Democratic President, would not hesitate a moment to do all these things which we have mentioned under the figures of (6), (7), and (8). Congress can do all this without any violation of the Constitu-you will catch him here. He appealed to older people with some appeal to respectability, but on the basis of the same old explanation to the crowd that the Greenback orator, a white man from the North with a black heart, who had come South for the purpose of dividing the Democratic party, there was no hope any longer. The bull-dozers demanded the return of their letter of warning, with all its compunctions of conscience. And when they were refused, they then placed himself on his socks without any further delay, making tracks for the next depot north in order to escape all other unpleasant interference."

which will operate it under the same name and through the same officers as heretofore. This action takes another Illinois road out of the hands of the courts and the Receivers.
